

Ike Expresses Thanks To All Who Aided Him In His Illness

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
DENVER (AP) — "An eternally grateful" President Eisenhower left Denver for Washington today after telling of his thanks to all who have aided him in his illness.

Speaking from the ramp of the Columbine III in raw, damp 36-degree weather, he said that the misfortune of his illness made him aware "of how good people are."

The President, looking surprisingly well, told an audience of Air Force personnel and a small group of friends and dignitaries that the force at Fitzsimons Army Hospital and at Lowry Air Force Base had "earned my eternal gratitude."

He expressed appreciation too, for the "messages of friendship" and to the people around the world who had "sent up their prayers" for his recovery when he was stricken seven weeks ago tomorrow.

He spoke but briefly after he and Mrs. Eisenhower drove up to the ramp of their plane to be greeted by a bipartisan group headed by Democratic Gov. Ed Johnson and Republican Mayor Will Nicholson.

The President wore a camel's hair top coat and a brown hat. Standing on the sixth step of the ramp, he spoke simply and with no word about any major domestic or foreign policy.

"Again, it is time for Mrs. Eisenhower and me to say goodbye," he began.

How Good People Are
"We leave under somewhat unusual circumstances this time."

He referred thus to his illness and said that the seven weeks he spent in the hospital had not been "wholly a loss" for it gave him and Mrs. Eisenhower an understanding "of how good people are."

He then paid the enlisted staff, nurses, corpsmen, medical men and others at Fitzsimons Hospital "my very grateful thanks."

"They have done so much," he added.

The President had a kiss for Mrs. John S. Doud, his mother-in-law, immediately upon his arrival at Lowry as he left the car in which Mrs. Doud rode with him and Mrs. Eisenhower from the hospital.

Leaves At 9:02 A.M.
Mrs. Doud remained behind, planning to join the presidential family later.

The crowd around the airport was chilled to the bone by the time the President left at 9:02 a.m. as the temperature dropped from 36 degrees at 8:30 a.m. to 31 degrees.

A crowd of several thousand turned out to bid farewell to the beaming President along the six-mile drive from the hospital to the air strip at Lowry.

Riding in a big black limousine with Mrs. Eisenhower and Mrs. Doud, the President waved a greeting all along the way. Just before he left the hospital grounds a group of youngsters turned up on the curb holding a big sign which read "Good Luck, Ike."

Students Wave Goodby
A bit further along there was another sign saying "Good Luck, Ike and Mamie."

In line was a car carrying Dr. Paul Dudley White of Boston, eminent heart specialist, who has physicians; Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, the president's own doctor; and Col. Thomas W. Mattingly, of the Army's Walter Reed hospital in Washington.

Weather permitting, the President will fly from Washington to Gettysburg Monday. Otherwise he will travel by automobile.

The "Buck Night" Drive will get underway Monday night at 8 o'clock to make up a deficit of more than $5,000 in the Community Chest drive. Captains and teams for the drive have been selected but anyone else interested in soliciting funds are asked to report at the YWCA Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

The "Buck Night" is an all-out effort to attain the goal in the Chest Drive. The citizens of the community will be given an opportunity to give an additional contribution since it has been reported that some residents had not been contacted.

The canvass will take about an hour, beginning at 8 p.m.

Chairman John Stahle emphasized this morning:

"We are merely asking one dollar from each adult in the family and not a dollar from each member of the family. If this is done we will very likely attain our goal."

Schoolhouse On Ike's Farm To Be Cottage

The little old red brick schoolhouse on the southwest corner of President Eisenhower's 189-acre farm on the Gettysburg Battlefield will soon be a neat little six-room cottage.

The Gettysburg Times has learned from a reliable source that the school, formerly the Pitzer School closed last June as a "one-room school," will be converted into a cottage of the New England type. Sometimes they are known as "salt box" cottages.

Work has been started by Victor Re to convert the school into a neat little cottage. It will have six rooms, two baths and an expansion attic. The exterior will be painted white to conform to the color scheme of the other buildings on the President's farm.

This is another in the long series of improvement steps on the presidential property.

Anticipating the President's and Mrs. Eisenhower's eagerness to return "home" the farm has been placed in tip-top shape.

The usually spick-and-span appearance appears a little brighter, the stock are fatter, the lawn is greener and the entire acreage looks neater and cleaner.

The farm hands are anxious to see the Eisenhowers again. They'll be waiting when they arrive Monday.

— might be recognized.

"Furthering this purpose, in his Veterans Day proclamation this year President Eisenhower declared that it is altogether fitting that a grateful Nation should set aside one day each year to pay special homage to the veterans who have fought so valiantly in all of its wars to preserve our heritage of freedom."

"Today I am privileged to dedicate an American Legion plaque, testifying to the devotion and service of America's veterans. The permanent plaque will be enshrined here at Gettysburg, for the solemn remembrance and inspiration of all our future generations.

"Here on this consecrated soil, the plaque will be a fitting monument to the wartime sacrifice and courage of America's fighting sons. As veterans we shall always cherish the memory of our departed comrades.

Symbol Of Dedication

SAYS VETERANS' DAY IS SYMBOL OF NEW POLICY

"Veterans day is not only a day to honor America's veterans, it also symbolizes a new attitude on the part of our nation," Lt. Col. Eben R. Jones, PMST at Gettysburg College, told the Gettysburg Junior high school students at a Veterans Day program Thursday afternoon.

The program sponsored by the Albert J. Lentz post of the American Legion was arranged by a committee headed by Jacob M. Sheads, history teacher at the school and a lieutenant colonel during World War II.

"Veterans Day symbolizes the attempt of the United States to abolish war by maintaining its strength. After each war, from the Revolution to World War II, America disbanded its armies and became militarily weak. And each time we found that such a policy did not lead to our goal — peace. Finding that a policy of weakness has failed us, we are now engaged in an opposite policy, of seeking peace by maintaining our strength.

Understand War Realities
"Veterans day emphasizes an understanding of the realities of war. It is on veterans that America is basing its long term defensive policy. You young men will find yourselves not only veterans of armed force service, but you will find yourselves, as no prior generation, serving for long periods in the armed forces reserve and the national guard."

Col. Jones also told the group, "There have been many articles written in newspapers and magazines, there have been many who have made speeches, uncompensated to today's youth. I do not subscribe to those ideas. I am absolutely confident that in due course you, the young people of the country, will take your proper places of responsibility in your community, state, nation, and, through the United Nations, the world. I am confident that through your acceptance of these responsibilities the world can be assured a bright and glorious future."

Lawrence M. Sheads and Commander Richard Fox, of the American Legion, and Jacob M. Sheads spoke briefly. Participating in the program was an Honor Guard of the American Legion comprising Eugene S. Sickles, captain, Richard Pinkbner, Harold Wentz, Paul Anzengruber, Harold Settle, Richard C. Cole and Paul B. Fox.

Officers of the Adams County Home Auxiliary were nominated and elected at a meeting Thursday afternoon at the county home.

Rev. Herman Stuempfle, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, former vice president, was elected president. He succeeds Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox, pastor of the Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church and will be installed next month.

Snow Falls In Area Thursday

A storm that swept up the Atlantic coast early Thursday night swung inland and dumped heavy rains on Adams County and snow in several sections of this area.

One of the heaviest rains in months poured down for more than two hours Thursday night and early in the evening the precipitation had turned into several inches of snow. The Bendersville area and some mountain sections felt the heaviest fall.

Clear skies and warmer temperatures followed today but the Weather Bureau predicted that an arctic air mass — now over the Midwest Plains — will spread over Pennsylvania by Sunday, bringing the coldest weather of the year with more snow.

PRISONER IS CHARGED WITH BURGLARY HERE

Dante Romeo D'Angelo, 29, Pittsburgh, has been charged before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder, with the burglary and larceny of the Warren Garage, Lincolnway East, "late on the night of August 14 or early on the morning of August 15."

State police from the local substation, filing the charge against D'Angelo, now a prisoner in the Allegheny County Prison for the theft of an auto and transporting it across state lines, concluded a lengthy investigation that covered much of the state and extended into W. Va.

The trail began August 30 when the Strickler and Fox garage was burglarized at Greencastle and a Buick sedan was stolen. Police sent out information to all nearby states, believing that the burglar who had stolen 70 auto titles from the Warren garage might use of those titles to get a new title for the car stolen at Greencastle.

First Clue September 29
September 29 a man walked into the West Virginia motor bureau at Charleston and presented a Pennsylvania title on a Buick, on which he said he wished to secure a West Virginia title, having moved there, he told the clerk. The clerk looked over the title and observed that he wished to check further on it. When the clerk went to check, the man disappeared.

In the meantime police had connected into the case a burglary August 27 at the Brake Pontiac Garage at Waynesboro, where two titles were also stolen.

Later the Buick was found, abandoned in Ohio. A Chevrolet had been stolen near where the Buick was found and police felt they were on the right track. Police throughout several states kept on the look out for the Chevrolet and Pittsburgh officers later stopped the car.

Brazil's Temporary President Is Ousted In Bloodless Coup

By FRED L. STROZIER
RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — The Brazilian army under Gen. Henrique Teixeira Lott seized the government early today and ousted provisional President Carlos Coimbra da Luz.

Teixeira Lott called for the navy and air force to support the uprising but they refused and said they would back Luz.

What started out as a bloodless coup by the army assumed serious proportions as the navy and air force issued a joint statement saying they "remain and will remain loyal" to the President.

At midmorning, the capital continued calm, but an air of tension was apparent in official circles.

The bloodless coup was carried out so quietly most residents of Rio de Janeiro did not even know it was happening.

A special session of Congress was called to decide who would assume the presidency. Constitutionally the post would go to Nereu Ramos, vice president of the Senate.

Luz, former president of the House of Deputies, took over as temporary president only last Tuesday.

Business As Usual
The capital went about its early morning business morning under a driving rain. A few extra military police and troops were on the streets.

Cabinet ministers, including Minister of Justice Prado Kelly, were reported under arrest.

Only last night Gen. Henrique Teixeira Lott, who had been holding the lid down on army elements which wanted to prevent the inauguration of President-elect Juscelino Kubitschek, resigned as war minister in a dispute with Luz.

After resigning, Teixeira Lott went to the central army barracks of the federal district and took command.

Army Honor Injured
He issued a proclamation to the nation saying a movement was being made against the temporary president because of his decision in the case of a colonel whom the resigned war minister wanted to discipline for political activity.

FOX TALKS TO FARM GROUP

Howard Fox, residential farm and home representative for the Metropolitan Edison Co., addressed the Upper Adams County Young Farmers Association on "Electricity on the Farm" Tuesday night in the Biglerville High School. Using diagrams and movies, he explained the safe use of electricity in the home and stressed the need for proper wiring. "Any building wired before 1940 should be checked to see if it is carrying," Fox said.

"The Metropolitan Edison Co. will send a representative to help with any problem in the home or on the farm, such as checking buildings to determine if wiring is safe or to plan new installations. This service is free and can be a great help to farmers, who are using more electricity every day," he said.

Glenn Kime reported on the Adams County poultry meeting he attended. "It seems that vaccination against pox, New Castle or bronchitis often is the trigger that sets off an outbreak of chronic respiratory diseases and as a result many big poultrymen have discontinued a vaccination program," Kime said.

At the next meeting, December 8, the subject will be "Fruit Tree Fertilization and Dairy and Vegetables." The program committee will meet on November 21.

SHOOT AT WIFE IN CARLISLE; SUICIDE NOTE

Charles L. Evans, 20, of Mt. Holly Springs, fired a shotgun at his wife in Carlisle Thursday, police said, and then locked himself in a bedroom at his home and threatened to commit suicide.

State and local police broke down the bedroom door and arrested Evans. He was committed to the Cumberland County Jail in Carlisle without bail on a charge of assault with intent to kill.

State Police said Evans was scheduled to appear at a hearing before Justice of the Peace William Dosh of Carlisle Thursday on a charge of assault and battery. The charge had been filed earlier in the week by his wife, Teresa, 17.

Asks Postponement
Police said Evans appeared for the hearing and asked Dosh for a 90-minute postponement. Dosh granted the request.

According to police, Evans then got a shotgun. In Carlisle, police said, he saw his wife walking along the street with a friend and fired at her. The shot missed, and he jumped in his car and fled to his home on the outskirts of Mt. Holly Springs.

Mrs. Evans alerted Carlisle police who notified State Police.

Neighbors in Mt. Holly Springs disarmed Evans, police said, and he then went to the house he shares with his grandmother. There he crawled into the attic, then came down and looked himself in his bedroom. His arrest followed.

State Police said the grandmother found a suicide note in the house. Mt. Holly Springs Police Chief Frank Stoerzinger assisted Carlisle State Police in the arrest.

This day was set aside to honor all the veterans who have fought to keep the flag of freedom flying in the blue sky all over this, our cherished land. Great tributes will be paid to those who live and those who died so freedom will not fade. Let's bow our heads in silent prayer for everlasting peace. A kind that will go on and on, and in spirit increase the greatest honor we can give the veterans in our land is sincere love and tenderness. Held in a helping hand, remember when this day is through, the battle is not won until the whole wide world lives in peace. A brilliant peaceful sun.

about it and have offered their homes at extremely reasonable figures, if we only had the money to purchase them.

"We sought to buy the Lerew property, across from the Peach orchard before Mr. Lerew started his cabins there, but he said he would not sell for four times the price he paid, and he paid a good price for it. We are handicapped in that we can only pay a small fraction higher than an appraised valuation, when we have the money available to buy at all.

Want Barriga Property

"In the case of the Barriga property, we have always wanted it, just as we want other parts of the battlefield. Attempts were made to buy it previously, and perhaps if the war had not intervened we would have been able to secure it from Miss Margaret McMillan back in the days before World War II. Now we have been directed to buy it by Congress, and funds have been made available by Congress. We only wish we could interest Congress in the purchase of other land, but there are many National Parks and Congress has only so much money to appropriate, so all of it can not be bought."

Mrs. Barriga told of contacting the National Park office on a number of occasions as the Barrigas advanced their plans to reconstruct the McMillan house and establish a building development on the land.

Each time they were told that the government did not contemplate purchase and that they had a right to go ahead, Mrs. Barriga said. "Then suddenly the government is interested, after we had spent a great deal of time and money and have come to love the McMillan House and want it for ourselves and our children. Gettysburg is hemmed in and we feel that the 11-acres we can make into a development will help our community. We feel that the placing of beautiful new homes there will not detract from the battlefield, in fact cannot be seen from the most part from the battlefield. We feel that our efforts to renovate the McMillan House have improved the battlefield. Certainly when it was falling down the government did not show interest. We read that Secretary McKay feels that possibly the Department of the Interior owns too much property. We see developments in what would appear to be most important parts of the field and then suddenly, after assurances to the contrary, the government wants to take away the property we love and have worked so hard to improve, and we cannot understand it."

Thomas Metz reported that $330.91 was raised through the Olympic Fund collection held at a football game at Gettysburg College. Canisters now in the stores will be collected later.

Plans were outlined to sponsor a "Kiddies Club" movies Saturday mornings at a local theater. The movies will be suitable for children and will be those approved by the PTA.

The gavel that Gettysburg started off on a rotating plan, to various Jaycee clubs last year, was returned to the local unit Thursday night by Robert Gayman and other representatives of the Dillsburg Jaycees.

Plans were made to participate in the "Buck Night" program of the Community Chest Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock. A donation of $25 was made to support medical teams in South Viet Nam in "Operation Brotherhood" supported nationally by the Jaycees. President Magnus Flaws presided at the meeting.

an enrollment drive throughout schools of the county and will begin preparation of gift boxes for shipment to children overseas next week. These are annual projects undertaken by students.

Presiding over the meeting at which Biglerville played host, was Adrena Gemmill, of East Berlin High School, president of the Adams County Junior Red Cross. Charlotte Orndorff, New Oxford High School, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting. The treasurer's report was given by Edwina Klinefelter of Gettysburg High School.

Report On Camp

Mrs. Ruth Wisler, Junior Red Cross secretary for the county chapter, introduced vice presidents, Robert Keessel, of Gettysburg High School; Joyce Arnsberger, of Biglerville High School, and Susan Lemmon, of New Oxford High School.

Approximately 60 members attended the meeting.

Participants in the Red Cross training camp at Hood College last summer Susan Lemmon, of New Oxford High School, and Joyce Arnsberger, of Biglerville High School, reported on classroom and social activities. Financed by the Red Cross, the training camp provides an opportunity for young people to meet and discuss Junior Red Cross projects. Girls participated in water safety demonstration, song fests, theatrical groups, choral singing, newspaper work, discussions on home chapters and conferences designed to teach them how to make meetings more interesting.

Display Gifts

A display of project suggestions was arranged in the auditorium by Mrs. Wisler. Included in the display were: Halloween masks, gifts, favors, joke books, stationery, paper sculpture, Thanksgiving decorations of pilgrims and turkeys and handkerchief favors. Mrs. Wisler explained that these items will be sent to military installations, hospitals and the county home.

New Oxford offered to be host at the spring meeting of the council.

Following the business meeting a short skit was presented by members of the Biglerville High School demonstrating the extremes to which student-run Junior Red Cross meetings can go. Skits were created by Jack Palmer of the high school.

Mrs. Peggy Hill, executive secretary for the Adams County Red Cross Chapter; Mrs. Ruth Wisler, Junior Red Cross secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth S. Garrett, advisor to the East Berlin Junior Council; Miss Jeanne Bucher, Red Cross office secretary, and Mrs. Nevin Prantz, advisor to the Biglerville Junior Council, attended the meeting.

Punch and cookie refreshments, arranged in an autumn theme, were served by members of the host school.

EVANG. BILLY GRAHAM

LITTLESTOWN: — Folks of this community and area have been eyeing with enthusiasm the announcements of this great event. Never before have we been privileged to see EVANG. BILLY GRAHAM in action. Never before have we seen the largest religious crowds in history gather to help in bringing revival in our day. Now our opportunity is soon to come. More outstanding—we will have a front row seat.

LOS ANGELES: 1950: FAITH IN PRAYER! A MAN NAMED WILLIAM GRAHAM! GOD! REVIVAL! Thus began one of Christianity's most powerful and farthest reaching revival efforts. Literal moments saw William, now Billy Graham, reach the headlines of these United States. Everywhere people spoke of BILLY GRAHAM, "THE MAN GOD USES." Then to Korea, Japan, our military camps, Formosa, then England's Wembley stadium, then Scotland, and reaching to audience with Queen Elizabeth II. Everywhere hundreds to thousands are praying, the Bible is preached, and multitudes hit the sawdust trail. This is the remarkably true story of God and a man.

BILLY GRAHAM, first revivalist to use motion pictures to spread the gospel, surprised the world with the first Christian Western, "MR. TEXAS" in 1951. So unanimously was this received that he produced "OILTOWN, U. S. A." IN WHICH HE APPEARS HERE IN LITTLESTOWN, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19. SEE BILLY GRAHAM PREACH TO 60,000 IN A SINGLE SERVICE! FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

George Stock and Beatrice Weaver Wed In New Oxford: Private George Stock, of the state motor police, at Hershey, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stock, North Stratton street, and Miss Beatrice Weaver, daughter of Mrs. Mamie Weaver, New Oxford, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this morning in St. Mary's Catholic church in New Oxford. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. Paul Weaver, an uncle of the bride.

Miss Beatrice Weaver, a twin sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Joseph Ellis, Washington, D. C., a former classmate of the bridegroom and now a member of the United States Secret Service, served as best man. Bernard Stock, a brother of the bridegroom, and William Weaver, a brother of the bride, were the ushers.

Private Stock was salutatorian of his class at Mt. St. Mary's college when he graduated in 1935. In 1937 he received his master's degree. The couple will reside at Hershey where Private Stock is stationed.

Today's Talk

MY FRIENDS

I like my friends. I collect them, as I do my rare books, on the selective basis. I like those that have what I haven't. To become intimate with such ones, I grow richer, and keep learning new things about people and life.

I have friends whom I have never met. I write to them and they to me. I dislike eating alone, so I try to invite special guests to dine with me. They make the food taste better — it digests best with good talk and lively conversation.

We are creatures of many moods. There are times when I want most to be alone and think things out. At others I want company with someone who can match the mood that I am in. I have many book friends. They often introduce me to new writers who add to my enjoyment of good literature. Most any time you could find in one of my pockets some papers with notations of books to buy and read. A reader of these talks in Cleveland once sent me "The Private Papers of Henry Ryecroft," by George Gissing, the English writer. His books and life so intrigued me that I devoted years to collecting all his books and letters. Some time ago I presented the great collection to Yale University.

So many things sprout from simple discoveries and instances. My friends have helped to season life's experiences, and they have added more to my enjoyment of life than I can adequately measure. You will find my other self planted in the hearts of my friends! I often wonder if I give as much as I take from these friends of mine. I hope so.

My best friends are those who pay on attention to my many faults, and I try to match the compliment. I try to be selective, like the beautiful tiny hummingbird — interested only in the honey that is there! People who are too perfect are uninteresting. R. B. Cunningham Graham once wrote a wonderful essay on the man who falls. He said that such a one was far more interesting and dramatic than the one who merely succeeded!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Never Mind the Critics!"

WEATHER CHANGE

Was it a few brief weeks ago We wished a chilling breeze would blow

And where we went, to all we'd meet,

We waited about the cruel heat?

Only a short while back to run We grumbled 'neath the blazing sun, And hopefully we watched the sky To see a cloud come drifting by.

Well, clouds have come and brought the rain.

The breeze we wished for blows again.

But, hot or cold, by day and night, The weather never seems just right.

When August was, this thought had we:

November days would perfect be. Now here they are and we complain About the wind and driving rain.

1,000 Killed And Hurt In German Coventry Raid: (By the Associated Press) — German night raiders inflicted a toll of about 1,000 killed and wounded in a town-smashing assault on Coventry in the English industrial midlands, a British communique announced today, charging that Nazi airmen committed "indiscriminate bombardment of the whole city."

In Berlin, Nazis exultantly declared that the ancient English city, where Lady Godiva once rode naked on horseback through the town, was engulfed in "an ocean of flames."

Maryland, West Virginia Must Win Saturday If They Expect To Play Bowl Games

The Associated Press

There's supposed to be something about playing at home that makes so-so teams come up with superhuman efforts.

If that's the case, then several of the nation's leading college football powers, including Maryland and West Virginia, had better be on their toes tomorrow.

Not that Clemson, which will face the Terps, and Pittsburgh, which takes on WVU, are fair-to-middlin' clubs. They're a lot better than that.

It's just that there's a lot at stake in both games and maybe a little of the whoop and holler will spur the underdogs.

Maryland, the nation's second-ranked team, is heavily favored to move further along the Orange Bowl road.

Ready For Surprise

Word from the South Carolina school, however, is that it is ready to spring a surprise and knock Maryland from the ranks of the unbeaten. Each team is 3-0 in Atlantic Coast Conference play.

Pittsburgh stands smack in the way of a possible Sugar Bowl bid for West Virginia, which is No. 6 in the country and already has won the Southern Conference title. Should West Virginia win this one, an invitation to New Orleans may be in the mail next week.

Besides Maryland and West Virginia, other teams playing important games on the road are Yale, Duke, Texas Christian, Notre Dame, Auburn and Oregon State.

Duke Has Chance

Yale, on the strength of its surprise victory over Army, is favored to knock off Princeton and clinch the Ivy League crown.

Duke, though beaten twice and tied in nonconference play, still will have a shot at the ACC crown and the Orange Bowl bid if it can get by South Carolina and Clemson trips Maryland.

Texas Christian meets Texas in a game which will go a long way in deciding the Southwest Conference winner. Texas A&M leads the league, but it's ineligible for postseason action. The Aggies play Rice tomorrow.

With three straight victories since being upset by Michigan State, Notre Dame is rated about a four-touchdown favorite over North Carolina. The Tarheels, however, showed improved form in thumping South Carolina last week.

In the Southeastern Conference, first-place Mississippi goes outside the conference to take on Houston. But Auburn, in second place, must beat Georgia Tech to remain in contention. Ole Miss is 4-1 in loop action while Auburn is 3-1-1.

West Coast Games

On the West Coast, UCLA, playing at home, figures to stay on top of the PCC by beating Washington. Oregon State, he runnerup, meets California. The league records here are UCLA 4-0 and State 4-1.

Oklahoma, the No. 1 team in the Associated Press poll, looks like a cinch against Iowa State.

Ohio State, Michigan and Michigan State, the Big Ten powers, all will be at home, the Buckeyes against Iowa, Michigan against Indiana and the Spartans, the country's No. 3 team, against Minnesota.

Here's the way some of the other games look:

EAST: Army to rebound over Penn; Navy should have it easy against Columbia; Harvard and Brown in a close one; ditto Cornell-Dartmouth.

SOUTH: Florida and Tennessee a tossup; same for Tulane-Vanderbilt; Wake Forest seems too strong for Virginia.

as an outstanding symbol of the dedication of all veterans to the service of their country, in peace and in war.

"The battles won in defense of America have helped to end armed hostilities. But we will have won the finest and the final victory for ourselves and for posterity if, in our lifetime, we can achieve an enduring peace for America and the world.

"No one knows better than Legionnaires and our fellow veterans that this will not be attained easily. It offers one of the greatest challenges of our time. But it can be attained.

"It must be attained, because it represents the highest purpose of our service as Americans.

"In saying that Legionnaires and all veterans share a major responsibility in the quest for peace with honor, I am not suggesting that we must shoulder the entire burden.

"We could not, even if we would. Must Accept Leadership

"We need not, because our non-veteran fellow citizens stand ready to carry through their portion of the responsibility.

"I do believe, however, and I am certain that you do, that America's veterans must accept the leadership in working for a just and enduring peace.

"Leadership in meeting the responsibilities of American citizenship comes naturally to those who have led freedom's fight for survival. Veterans don't have to be reminded of their obligation to continue the fight for freedom and for peace with honor.

"The great story of America has not been recorded on the battlefield alone. Bunker Hill, Gettysburg, the Meuse-Argonne, Iwo Jima — all are revered names in American history. They are written with the life blood of patriots who should be remembered and honored as long as our Nation shall exist.

Long Years Of Peace

"But in honoring these Americans and the battlefield made sacred by their sacrifices, we must not forget that our Nation has been at peace during more than 150 years of its history.

"It is tragically true that two world wars and the Korean conflict have been telescoped into our lifetime. The lives of present-day Americans have been clouded by war and the threat of war.

"But the lights of peace have shown through often enough and brilliantly enough to illuminate America's progress during the peacetime years of this century. It has illuminated the bright future which can be ours if the world can be blessed with peace as we explore the atomic era.

"American Legionnaires and all veterans have ample reason to work for peace. We have ample reason to gladly accept the leadership in this quest.

Avoid Atomic War

"All Americans fervently hope that our civilization may be spared the indescribable devastation that could be wreaked upon us by a hydrogen-atomic war.

"With all our fellow citizens, we veterans join in the prayer that America and the world may know the tremendous benefits which the peaceful use of atomic energy can bring to mankind.

"Our great President and fellow Legionnaire, Dwight Eisenhower, has made — and will continue to make — enormous contributions to the cause of peace with honor.

"By his personal example, President Eisenhower has become the inspiration and the great hope of free men everywhere.

"We are indeed fortunate as a Nation to have a man of such great stature as our leader in this troubled period.

Pray For Recovery

"We all pray for his continued steady recovery, and his early return to personal direction of our Nation's affairs.

"The opportunity for our finest and most vital service to God and country lies ahead of us.

"Armed with the same faith and courage and devotion which marked our service on the field of battle, we Legionnaires and our fellow veterans can move forward, confident of success, toward humanity's objective of a peaceful world.

"In this task, we have the support and prayer of all Americans. We have the support which our Nation always has given its fighting men.

"We can be assured that our leadership in the quest for peace will not go unheeded throughout the land. All of our people will respond with a strength born of spiritual faith.

Service Of Rededication

"In this ceremony today, we are not only paying our respects to those Americans who have made the supreme sacrifice in the defense of freedom. We are also meeting in rededication of ourselves to those basic American principles for which our honored comrades died.

"It is fitting that observances such as this have been expanded to honor veterans of all wars, because our American ideals have remained constant throughout our Nation's existence.

"Our founding fathers carved out a Nation dedicated to freedom and equality, recognizing the dignity of the individual created by God. Through the years, Americans have cherished this heritage, and fought to preserve it.

"This heritage, and this constant objective are reflected in the inscription of this American Legion plaque which I now dedicate in honor of all veterans of all our Nation's wars. The inscription reads:

"We pray for peace . . . but peace with honor!"

"We pray that mankind will accept as a basis for this peace the trinity of religious, political and social freedom won in the American Revolution, preserved in the Civil War, protected in the Spanish-American War, and defended in the Great Wars and in the Korean Conflict."

Altered Gettysburg Lineup To Face Green Terrors At Westminster On Saturday

A flock of injuries sustained last week at Delaware, most serious of which has deprived the of its ace quarterback, Frank Gagliardi, for the remainder of the season, will necessitate Coach Johnny Yovicsin revamping his lineup against Western Maryland College Saturday afternoon at Westminster. Game time is 2 o'clock.

The Bullet mentor has nominated Jim Soltz, senior, to replace Gagliardi while Charley Heverly, junior, and Dave Hetrick, sophomore, will also see a lot of action at the quarterback slot.

Bill Morrow, 210, sophomore, and Dave Graybill, 134, also a sophomore, are scheduled for plenty of duty at center due to injuries to Sheldon Yungst and his understudy Jack Ridinger. Yungst will see part-time duty while Ridinger is definitely out of this week's game.

Dick Lewandowski, end; Bob Barkley, tackle, and Don Harman, guard, are recovering from injuries and will also be limited to part time action.

No Let Down
Despite the crushing setback at the hands of Delaware, the Bullets have suffered no let down and, according to Coach Yovicsin, have put in a good week of drills.

For the first time this season the Bullets will be called upon to meet the single-wing attack, pet offensive weapon of Western Maryland.

Charley Havens has 17 returnees from last year's squad although a number saw very little action a year ago. The Terrors are thin on capable line replacements but have good depth in the backfield.

Western Maryland has won two and lost four games to date. The Terrors shellacked Dickinson 31-0 and edged Franklin and Marshall 13-9. Defeats were suffered at the hands of Penn Military 25-6; Randolph Macon 14-13; Hampden-Sydney 31-12 and Drexel 34-13.

26th Game In Series
Saturday's game will mark the 26th in a series begun in 1891. Gettysburg leads 20-4 with one game ending in a tie. Last year the Bullets triumphed 27-0.

Gagliardi's absence is certain to be felt by the Bullets. During the current campaign he connected on 30 of 53 passes for 499 yards and five scores. He rushed for 165 more yards and tallied three touchdowns. A leading candidate for Little All-American and All-State berths again this season, his three-season career shows he accounted for 2,257 yards — 1,857 by passing and 27 touchdowns — and 400 yards on rushing with 12 six-pointers. Two years ago his 18-TD passes was one short of the EIFA record.

Warriors, Bolts, Delone In Final Games Tonight

Tonight will mark the conclusion of the 1955 football campaign for three Adams County scholastic teams.

Gettysburg (2-6-1) travels to Hanover (8-1) to meet the once-beaten Nighthawks in a South Penn Conference game.

Littlestown (7-1) clashes with Delone (5-2-1) at McSherrystown. Both games are expected to attract big crowds. Each will start at 8 o'clock.

Pro Eager To Have President Play Golf

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Dick Sleichter, golf pro at the Gettysburg Country Club, is all keyed up about helping President Eisenhower "get his game back in shape."

The 35-year-old professional says he just can't wait to get the President back on the golf course, if his health permits.

Eisenhower, an ardent golf fan, is scheduled to arrive at his Gettysburg farm Monday for an indefinite period of convalescence from a recent heart attack suffered while on vacation in Denver.

Sleichter said he hopes to play golf with the President again as he had done several times since Eisenhower has been spending weekends at his farm on the edge of the famed Civil War battlefield.

The golfer added that "practice and more practice" is the only thing that will get the President's game back to normal—if it has slipped.

Eisenhower's physicians said he may soon be able to do some practice putting and chipping on a green in the front yard of his farm home.

Make Strong Bids For All-America

NEW YORK (AP)—Backfield stars with such fascinating names as Jim Swink, Hopalong Cassidy, and Joe Childress are making strong bids for 1955 All-America football recognition.

Swink is from Texas Christian; Cassidy, of Ohio State, made the 1954 All-America and may very well repeat; and Childress is the spark of a surprising Auburn team.

Others equally talented but with more conventional monickers as recommended by The Associated Press All-America regional boards include Frank Tamburello, Maryland; Jimmy Brown, Syracuse; George Welsh, Navy; Dick James, Oregon; Freddy Wyant, West Virginia; Earl Morrall, Michigan State; Paul Hornung, Notre Dame; Tommy McDonald, Oklahoma; and Jon Arnett, Southern California.

The Associated Press All-America, based on findings of the regional boards, will be announced Dec. 2 after reports from all regular season games have been thoroughly sifted.

MUDDY FIELD FOR BIG RACE

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—The fourth International horse race at Laurel today could also be broken down into a $65,000 inter-continental match with seven of the American side against six for Europe on a muddy field.

Leading the American team are Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Social Outcast and Clifford Mooers' Traffic Judge.

Rated best from across the Atlantic are Ireland's Panastip to together with Sir Percy Lorraine's Darius and Miss Dorothy Paget's Nucleus of England.

The size of the field could be a deciding factor. There wasn't enough room to start 13 and Laurel had to move the fence. It still will be narrow and the turns sharp along the route and the jockeys will have to be on their mettle. The one who makes the best move is more than likely to win.

The track condition also may enter the picture. It rained last night and more showers were expected before clearing this afternoon.

Terrors Defeat Bullet Kickers

The Gettysburg College soccer team dropped its seventh game in nine starts when it lost a 5-2 decision to Western Maryland here Thursday afternoon.

Next Wednesday the Bullets conclude their season by meeting Temple University at Philadelphia.

DELONE JUNIOR HIGH SUFFERS 1ST LOSS 26-0

Delone Junior High's bid for a perfect football season was ruined Thursday when the undefeated Camp Curtin Terrors outclassed the Squires for a 26-0 decision at Harrisburg. The defeat was the first for Delone after five triumphs, and marked the eighth straight victory for the Terrors.

Camp Curtin got off to a good start in the first period when Ollie Ross scored on a 48-yard run following a 37-yard run by Charlie Plant. Sutton plunged for the point.

Two more Terror scores came in the second period. Plant turned in runs of 20 and 15 yards before smashing over from the 6. A short time later Sutton tallied from the 2.

After a scoreless third quarter, Camp Curtin scored in the final quarter with Ross going over from the 2. A recovered Delone fumble on the Squires' 17 led to the final TD drive.

Delone was held completely in check throughout, never advancing beyond its own 42-yard mark. The Squires were held to 61 yards on rushing and 37 on passing. John Gastley and Lou Lawrence combined to give the losers most of their yardage.

Costa Battles Lopes Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — If Carmelo Costa could punch, he might be the featherweight champion of the world. Instead of fighting for the title, the flashy Brooklyn boxer takes on Joey Lopes, the No. 8 lightweight, tonight at Madison Square Garden in a rematch of their March 18 bout.

Ranked No. 4 among the 126-pounders, the slick Costa owns a classy left and trigger-fast hands. Instead of forcing a match with Saddler, who is overdue for a defense, Costa has been standing still despite an elimination victory over Lulu Perez and two decisions over Bobby Bell.

The bare facts tell the story. Costa, 21, has lost only twice in 33 pro starts for a 27-2-4 record. He never has been knocked out. The catch is that he has knocked out only three. In fact, he had to go hard in the 10th round to pull out a split decision over Bell, one of his conquerors, in his last start, Sept. 2. Bell and Rudy Garcia both outpointed Costa late in 1954.

Costa took Lopes on a unanimous decision eight months ago.

LEWIS DEFENDS MOUNTAINEERS' GRID SCHEDULE

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (AP) — West Virginia's coach Art (Pappy) Lewis, answering critics of his schedule on the eve of his game with Pittsburgh, said today he felt that a conference of strong Eastern independents is inevitable.

"I can't see that West Virginia's schedule is any weaker than that of Maryland and Oklahoma," the outspoken Mountaineer coach said. "Oklahoma played only two tough games—with Pitt and Texas—and then loafed through an easy conference card, UCLA and Baylor, and the latter isn't strong this year, are the only two tough teams played by Maryland."

"Like Oklahoma, we are committed to a (Southern) conference schedule and it is unfortunate that all of these teams cannot be put in the big time class. But I feel that overall our boys are facing just as tough tests as many of the better teams in the country."

Is Unbeaten, Untied
West Virginia, ranked 6th nationally, is one of the three unbeaten and untied major eleven remaining. The other two are Oklahoma and Maryland, Nos. 1 and 2 in the national list.

Reports here today were that the Sugar Bowl was keenly interested in West Virginia and probably would offer a bid early next week if the Mountaineers are able to take the measure of three-beaten Pittsburgh, a traditional rival. West Virginia ruled a five-point favorite.

Discussing schedules, Lewis said, "I feel that some day—and maybe soon—we may have a strong conference made up of West Virginia, Pittsburgh, Penn State, Syracuse, Colgate and perhaps others. This would be an extremely strong conference and would be a money maker for all."

Question Time Of Sprinter
NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Golliday, 24-year-old Northwestern senior, may be the world's newest fastest human at 100 yards but before it is official there's likely to be quite a ruckus in the ranks of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Nearly six months after it was announced that the 160-pound Negro sprinter had matched the world record with a 9.3 seconds clocking in the Big Ten relays at Evanston, Ill., the records committee of the AAU said today it would consider his time of 109.2 for a new standard.

Complications developed when the records committee of the national organization discovered that the cards of two of the three timers caught Golliday in :09.2, the other in :09.3. The Central Assn. had applied for :09.3 for the North-western runner.

"We have asked the Central Assn. for an explanation," said

SENATOR WANTS STUDY OF G. M. WAR CONTRACT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) promised Thursday a full study of a government World War II order which gave General Motors a big advantage in the diesel locomotive business.

The Wyoming senator, acting chairman of an antitrust subcommittee conducting a lengthy inquiry into General Motors' growth and operations, said "we want to go into this matter completely."

The order in question, issued by the War Production Board, permitted GM to manufacture all the road diesel made during the war while their rivals made diesel switchers and steam engines.

After the war, GM held onto the bulk of the diesel locomotive business. O'Mahoney said it now is making 76 per cent of all the units in this field.

Testimony about the government World War II order which allocated road diesel locomotive manufacture to GM came from officials of both Alco Products — formerly American Locomotive and Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton Corp.

These formerly had about 40 per cent each of the nation's locomotive business, when the railroads used steam power. But the subcommittee produced figures to show that Alco now has about 14 per cent of the locomotive produc-

President Cheers Up Young Heart Patient

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Ten-year-old Donald Depew is the proudest patient at Children's Heart Hospital.

Two weeks ago, the youngster, who has been hospitalized with rheumatic fever for the past six months, wrote to another heart patient, President Eisenhower. Donald told him that he, too, had a heart ailment and that he hoped the President would soon recover.

The other day he received a reply from Mrs. Eisenhower. Donald "got such a thrill out of it," his mother said, "it just has to be framed."

Pa. Police Begin Truck Inspection

PITTSBURGH (AP)—State police Thursday began an intensive inspection drive throughout Pennsylvania intended to ferret out any safety violations by trailer trucks.

The start of the campaign was ordered Wednesday night following a joint meeting here of officials of the Pennsylvania Highway Department and the trucking industry.

A number of recent fatal accidents involving runaway trucks, prompted the crackdown.

Officials said the safety inspection will cover trucks from front bumper to tail light with emphasis on brakes, lights and safety equipment.

LAWYER JAILED BY GOVERNMENT IN CONSPIRACY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Baltimore attorney was fined $500 Thursday and sentenced to two months in jail in U.S. District Court for conspiring to make false statements to the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

George Pettie, Baltimore, was sentenced by Federal Judge Alan Grim on charges of inducing three Marcus Hook, Pa., men and a Baltimore resident to make false statements in an effort to keep an alien seaman in the U.S. illegally. Judge Grim imposed $300 fines on Gustav Katsaros, Pantelis S. Pahlides and Louis Sitaras, all of Marcus Hook, and Louis Sitaras of Baltimore. He also placed each on a year's probation.

Statements Signed

Asst. U.S. Atty. Robert Spiegel said the three Marcus Hook men had signed statements for the Immigration Service in which they identified the alien, Georgios Kostatos, now living at Chester, Pa., as John Sitaras, born in Chester but now living in Greece. Louis Sitaras of Baltimore did not make any written statements, but was charged with conspiring with Pettie to keep Kostatos in the United States.

Kostatos was sentenced to two months in jail by Judge Grim prior to his deportation to Greece.

Start of Pettie's sentence was delayed until Dec. 12 to allow him to put his legal affairs in order. Grim granted a motion by Spiegel, dismissing a charge of subornation of perjury against Pettie.

Lonardi Wields Big Stick On Peronism

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Provisional President Eduardo Lonardi packs a big stick for any of his top associates who may be soft on Peronism. He has replaced his war minister, and informants said four more cabinet members may step out.

Two dozen soldiers armed with tommyguns stood on balconies overlooking the salon in government house yesterday while Gen. Leon Bengoa saw his successor in the War Ministry, Brig. Gen. Arturo Ossorio Arana, sworn into office. Despite all the military display, nothing untoward happened.

Bengoa stepped down for two reasons: He favored secret investigations of army officers connected with the ousted Peron regime, while others called for public probes; and he was not moving fast enough to purge pro-Peronista officers from the army to suit ardent revolutionary officers.

CHRYSLER GEARS FOR EXPANSION OVER 5 YEARS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Chrysler Corp., gearing for "tremendous" future markets, Thursday announced a billion-dollar, five-year expansion program and plans to broaden research on revolutionary automobile engines.

L. I. Corbitt, Chrysler's president, outlined what he termed "our forward plan" in a speech prepared for a National Press Club luncheon.

He said "it may very well be that if the company continues to move in the years ahead as it has in 1955, we will find it necessary to revise our investment plans upward."

Based On Confidence

Corbitt said Chrysler's plant and equipment expansion and research plans "are based primarily upon our confidence in the dynamic future of this country."

The automobile manufacturer said much of the new machinery to be installed will be automatic. In this connection, he said he saw certain "tremendous advantages to the economy in the rapid development of automation."

In addition to experimental and testing work immediately related to company products, Corbitt said

Committee will meet Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the scout rooms in the town school.

"We are expanding our research in the development of the gas turbine and other experimental automotive engines, in the field of nuclear energy, in electronics and in the applications of solar energy."

NEW DELHI (AP)—India's railway detectives caught some 7,600,000 passengers trying to travel without tickets during the 1954-55 fiscal year. An announcement said most agreed to pay fares and penalties but that more than 200,000 were prosecuted for refusing to do so.

CAMP FRIEDLAND, Germany (AP)—A freight train with 500 more German war prisoners freed from a Siberian prison camp reached the West German border near here early Tuesday.

The new arrivals brought to more than 5,000 the German prisoners freed since Oct. 6. Soviet Premier Bulganin told Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in Moscow Sept. 11 that the Soviet Union would release 9,626 German "war criminals" this month.

'Tis the irony of fate that so many families are saddened by the absence of dear ones who lie buried... row on row... in ground consecrated by the blood of American patriots.

It is only fitting that memorials of imperishable material be used to perpetuate the memory of our departed loved ones. Sunday School Lesson

By

Rev. Dr. Howard R. and Margaret C. Gold

JESUS TEACHES HOW TO LIVE

Luke 6:27-38

Key Verse: As you wish that men would do to you, do so to them. Luke 6:31.

Early in Jesus' Galilean ministry He called twelve disciples to assist Him in spreading His Gospel of love and repentance. In last week's lesson we observed Jesus meeting human needs - healing men and women of disease and deformities of body and mind. He had ignored ecclesiastical laws by performing miracles on the Sabbath Day, arousing the religious leaders and offending some of His listeners. His was a new law of love in the cause of humanity. He met the accusations of scribes and Pharisees calmly, answering them with authority.

Jesus realized that the time had come for Him to organize His work and workers. His popularity in Galilee was unquestioned, and crowds followed Him everywhere. Frequently, He used a boat from which to speak to the multitudes who came to listen and learn. North of Capernaum He knew of many lonely spots where He could withdraw occasionally for a day or night of prayer and meditation, along with God.

Before the completion of the organization which was to be the nucleus of the Christian faith, the Master sought solitude, spending the night in prayer planning for one of the greatest addresses of His short ministry. The next morning He came down from the hill-top, summoned His disciples, and took His stand on a plain above the people. Not only Galileans were there, but people from all over Palestine, Tyre, and Sidon. Jesus had been demonstrating the Gospel by acts of mercy; now He was ready to set forth the ethics of the Gospel-teaching people how to live.

So in this hillside setting Jesus delivered the most wonderful sermon ever preached - the Sermon on the Mount. What was the nature of life in this kingdom of God Jesus had come to usher in? Serenely, beautifully, and thoughtfully. He began His discourse, starting with the Beatitudes. He intended to make these ideals practical, workable principles of living. In Luke 6:20-23 are the four beatitudes which closely parallel the first, second, fourth, and last of those in Matthew 5. These are followed by the four "woes" (Luke 6:24-26) which were not addressed to the disciples who were present, but to the absentees who were successful.

Jesus preached like a man sure of Himself and His subject. This, the great masterpiece of religious address, was intellectual, brilliant, persuasive. It was not sensational, but superior in every way, showing that He had reached spiritual maturity. Jesus was addressing Himself particularly to twelve apostles, introducing publicly the principles of the Christian way of life they had elected to propagate. These new theories of life and religion were breathtaking. Who could understand love after a thousand years of grimly observing the law? How could "the meek," the weaklings of that day, aspire to inherit the earth? When Jesus said, "Love your enemies," it sounded familiar to the Jews, but in their struggle for self-preservation, it has been forgotten. And so He laid down new laws of love and mercy, new principles of sincerity. They were adjured to "pray for those who abuse you," the word meaning the worst and coarsest insults. In all of these admonitions our Lord tried to impress upon disciples and audience alike that standards of Christian living "must rise above the ordinary dead level of law, custom, habit, which prevail in the world."

In the Key Verse you have the Golden Rule clothed in modern language. It is a simple principle hard to perform. But Jesus did not promise that the new way would be easy. It would require faith, courage, self-sacrifice. No wonder those who listened to the Sermon on the Mount were astonished. He had taken the law, infused it with a new spirit, and given it new meaning - an old law in a new dress. Jesus' words were revolutionary in His day for they upset accepted rules and customs. Even though progress has been slow through twenty centuries, faith and practice have triumphed. There is a unity of thought and theology among Christian believers as it is evidenced in the growth of the ecumenical movement and expressed in the World Council of Churches.

EVERYONE WELCOME

"SO WITH PRAYER..."

The sure and nimble touch of the hands of a great pianist is the result of hours of daily practice over a period of years. The great and thrilling music which he creates is the product of daily devotion to his art.

Every fine accomplishment in life requires the same daily devotion. If your house is neat as a pin, if you have a lovely garden, if your office is well-run and efficient, you know that it takes hours of daily care and devotion.

So with prayer. Prayer is one of the highest gifts a man has. But if it is to become more than a spasmodic and superstitious cry for help, it too requires daily care and devotion. It takes practice!

The Church stands ready to help you and your children know the great joy which comes to a man through daily prayer. And the best part of it is, the more you practice prayer, the greater the joy and happiness you will derive from it.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

UNITY PROBLEM MAY PARALYZE BIG 4 PROGRESS

By JOHN HIGHTOWER
GENEVA (AP) — Total East-West disagreement over unification of Germany threatened Thursday to paralyze progress on every issue at the Big Four foreign ministers conference.

Two of these issues are disarmament — taken up Thursday — and proposals to lift some Iron Curtain barriers to trade, travel and information.

But Western diplomats said only a radical twist in Soviet policy restoring the friendly atmosphere of last July's summit conference could brighten prospects of accomplishing anything on these questions.

Lean On Confidence
The world's hopes for ending the atomic arms race greatly depend upon a spirit of confidence among the great powers. Such a spirit, encouraged at the summit meeting, led some Western officials to believe new impetus to disarmament could be given here.

In words that sometimes cracked with anger, and at other times seemed sorrowful, the Western ministers yesterday told Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov that loss of confidence was one of the most serious results of the Soviet policy on Germany.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles said bluntly:

Doubts Value
"I am wondering again whether an agreement with the Soviet Union is worth much."

This was after British Foreign Secretary Macmillan charged Russia had "repudiated" the summit conference agreement to negotiate on reunification of Germany through a free vote.

"With one blow he struck down all high hopes that had been

Hospitals Foresee Financial Crisis

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Hospital Assn. of Pennsylvania said Thursday that hospitals throughout the state are running into difficulty because of the holdup in state aid for charity patients.

"A survey of state-aided community hospitals shows that practically every one will face financial difficulty this winter unless state aid payments are resumed in the near future," said George A. Hay, association president.

He added that the last payments made by the state for charity work covered the three months ending May 31.

form," Macmillan said, adding that Molotov did not realize the deep effect of his German declaration on world opinion.

Russia's Proposal
Molotov made it clear Russia will never agree to unification of Germany unless it is by means which would make sure the communization of the whole country.

Unshaken by the verbal pounding, Molotov announced he wants to bring up further proposals on Germany and European security.

He then called for the reduction of foreign troops in Germany "by, say 50 per cent," and reduction of total armed forces of the four big powers by a number equivalent to the troops withdrawn from Germany.

Calls For Treaty
He also called for a nonaggression treaty between the 15-nation Atlantic Alliance and the Warsaw pact bloc of Russia and her six European satellites.

Unofficial estimates were that Molotov's proposal would reduce Soviet forces by 150,000, U.S. forces by 125,000, the British by 50,000 and the French by 30,000.

Civil defense officials are studying the possible use of building blocks made of rice hulls for atomic war shelters.

OIL STOREHOUSE IN STATE WOULD BENEFIT MINERS

LANSFORD, Pa. (AP) — The president of the Northeast Pennsylvania Industrial Development Commission says that a proposed underground petroleum storage field in Panther Valley could mean many new jobs in this low employment area.

Victor Diehm of Hazleton made the statement Wednesday night at a meeting of 200 civic leaders from six hard coal communities.

Diehm said the proposed storage tank in the anthracite region would be "comparable to the discovery of a new basic resource" in its employment potential.

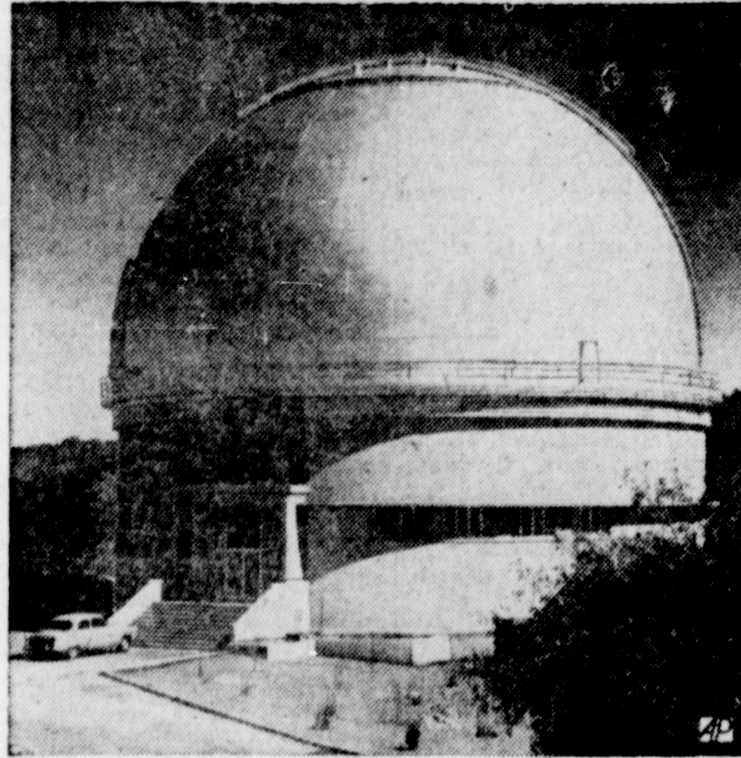

Open New Jobs
Speakers at the meeting said the proposed project would lead to the establishment of petrochemical industries, thus opening new jobs, and also would mean employment for the idled miners during the construction work.

The speakers emphasized that the project would not represent competition to the long established hard coal industry because the petroleum products brought in would be on the non-fuel type.

The project itself would consist of carving an underground storage basin out of a mountain near Nesquehoning and the building of a pipeline. The storage facilities would be less than two miles from rich deposits of anthracite coal.

Rep. Fenton Present
Among those attending the meeting was U.S. Rep. Ivor D. Fenton, Schuylkill County Republican, who said he "may have to change" his mind on his longtime opposition to any extension of pipelines into the northeast Pennsylvania anthracite region.

In conjunction with the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Co., which owns the land, Underground Storage and Exploration, Inc., has been conducting survey and preliminary explorations in the area.

The two, which have spent $100,000 on the preliminary work are still awaiting government authorization of a subsidy to go ahead with construction. Defense Mobilization Director Arthur Flemming is expected to announce a decision soon.

Edward Tempest, president of Underground Storage, said potentially 12 million barrels of petroleum products could be stored underground at one-fourth the cost of the present tank storage arrangements.

COURT UPHOLDS UNION IN FALSE AFFIDAVIT CASE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. Court of Appeals reaffirmed Thursday an earlier ruling that a union cannot be denied collective bargaining benefits on the ground that a union official filed a false non-Communist affidavit.

The ruling balked efforts of the National Labor Relations Board to take away the "compliance status" of the International Union of Mine, Mill & Smelter Workers union under the Taft-Hartley labor law.

The appellate court merely cited an earlier decision involving the International Fur & Leather Workers Union.

NLRB Cannot Deny Benefits
In that decision, the court held that the NLRB cannot deny a union collective bargaining benefits even though union members are aware of the falsity of a non-Communist affidavit filed by a union official.

The NLRB in February 1954 issued an order denying the Mine-Mill union "compliance status" on the ground Maurice E. Travis, secretary-treasurer of the union, had filed false non-Communist oaths annually.

In today's decision, the Court of Appeals said:

Congress Provided Penalty
"Congress explicitly provided a criminal penalty for false non-Communist affidavits. If these sanctions have proved insufficient to prove new ones."

Atty. Gen. Brownell, acting under the 1954 Communist Control Act, asked the Subversive Activities Control Board to brand the union as Communist - infiltrated. The board has not yet started hearings.

Considerate Cops Have Fire Delivery

ASHEVILLE, N. C. (AP) — A police cruiser, siren screaming, raced across Pack Square here and halted in front of the fire department.

Policemen bailed out of the cruiser, one from each side. Then firemen extinguished a fire which had been delivered to their door in the cruiser.

TIMBER FIRES IMPERIL HOMES

VENTURA, Calif. (AP) — Families fled their homes as a stubborn brush and timber fire periled six residences Thursday after blackening 16,000 acres.

Occupants moved possessions to a Hidden Valley chicken ranch owned and operated by E. L. (Curly) Lambeau, former coach for the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins professional football teams, controlled Wednesday. It had

The endangered homes are near the crest of Carlisle Canyon, near Lake Sherwood and Hidden Valley — in Ventura County 40 airline miles northwest of Los Angeles. Additional fire rigs were dispatched to the scene.

Another fire, in La Tuna Canyon of Tujunga, a hilly suburb a few miles north of Los Angeles, was controlled yesterday. It had burned 3,000 wooded acres in the Verdugo hills and destroyed three homes.

In the Ventura County fire, damage to the Circle X ranch of the Los Angeles area council of the Boy Scouts was estimated at about $150,000. No boys were at the ranch at the time.

LEADER LABELS DEM TAX ON TAX PLAN 'RISKY'

HARRISBURG (AP) — A Democratic proposed state tax on federal income tax payments was viewed today by Gov. Leader as too risky a solution for Pennsylvania's 10-month fiscal deadlock.

"There is some serious doubt about the constitutionality of a tax-on-tax," the governor declared. "I don't believe in this 11th month that we can afford to run the risk of passing any tax program that might turn out to be unconstitutional," he told his news conference yesterday, adding: "I feel it would be very foolhardy to run such a risk."

Could Meet Approval
But if a tax-on-tax plan could be devised that the attorney general believes would not be thrown out by the courts, "it certainly would be in keeping with my philosophy on taxation," the governor emphasized.

But he held little hope for such success.

The House Ways and Means Committee now has under consideration a bill introduced by Speaker Andrews (D-Cambria) and Rep. Readinger, Democratic floor leader, to impose a seven per cent state levy on federal income tax payments. Some Senate Republicans have indicated such a plan would be given serious consideration.

Constitutionality Questioned
However, many experts believe the tax-on-tax violates the uniformity clause of the Constitution which bans variations in tax rates.

The governor said that no decision had been made on whether bi-partisan tax conferences would be resumed. They broke down several months ago after half a dozen meetings failed to produce an agreement.

Action Unknown

The governor also:
1. Declined to say what action he will take on a state Pardon Board recommendation to commute the 1½ to 3-year prison sentence imposed on former Mayor Thomas W. Flatley of Erie for conspiracy. The governor added, however, that he has followed the recommendations of the pardons board in "nearly every case."

2. Described Philadelphia Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr. as possessing "very outstanding" qualifications for the post of United States Senator.

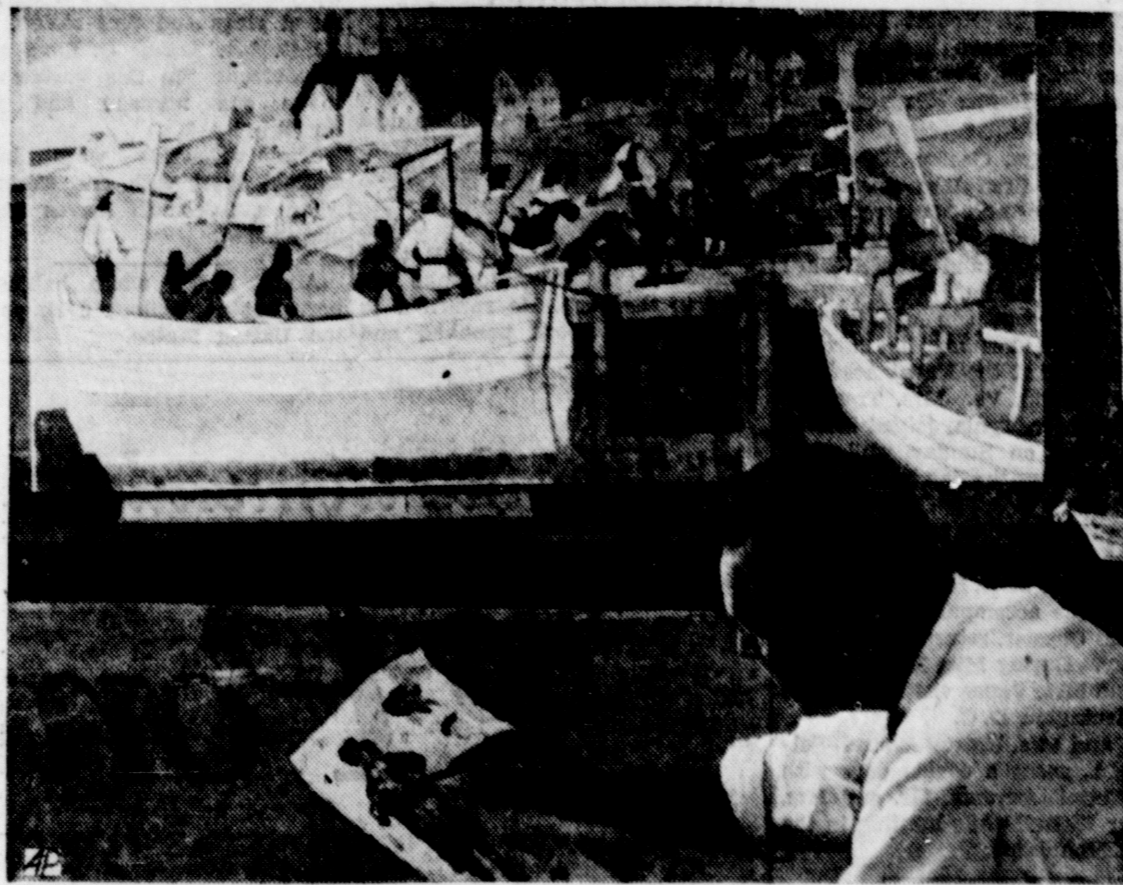

3. Said that if the money is made available the proposed mental health program would do an outstanding job for the state.

Predicts Approval

4. Predicted speedy approval of a new Pennsylvania State University building program by the General State Authority, the state's borrow and build agency.

On the sales tax, which he has long opposed, the governor made clear he has not changed his position "a bit." Asked if Democrats would sponsor a sales tax, if that were the only way Republicans would approve one, he replied:

"I can't conceive that. If they want a sales tax they have the means to sponsor it."

G. M. DEALERS EAGER TO TALK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Antitrust subcommittee is still receiving requests from former General Motors car dealers who want to testify in the current GM hearings, an aide said today.

Some of them only recently had their connection with the big auto corporation severed, he said.

The hearings, started this week, are in recess until Tuesday. Dealers' complaints are one topic which Acting Chairman O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) of the subcommittee has promised to explore thoroughly, but no time has been set for testimony on these.

One top GM official indicated clearly at yesterday's session the corporation was ready to meet charges by dealers. When O'Mahoney remarked that a number of dealers had told him of "the tough situation" they faced, Henry M. Hogan, vice president and general counsel of General Motors, replied: "Why don't you ask them how much they've made in the last five years to see if they're crying wolf? That's poverty with a ham under your arm."

Harold L. Hamilton, retired GM vice president, commented that "I think they (the dealers) ought to be able to live off their fat for a while."

Hamilton, first GM witness to appear in the hearings, entered a plea from competing firms that the corporation got an unfair advantage in its Diesel locomotive sales out of a World War II government order.

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — A new ordinance provides that dogs not on leash be impounded and Arland Smith, city dog officer, wonders if dogs really are man's best friend. Impounded dogs can be retrieved by payment of a $5 fine and $1 a day for care. In the first month 60 dogs went to the pound and only three owners retrieved them. Meanwhile dog complaints average 20 a day.

Beyond the Realm of Argument!

This is the season when conversations turn easily and often to motor cars.

And, in almost any gathering, you're likely to find a wide difference of opinion about the relative merits of the year's automotive offerings.

Until the talk turns to Cadillac!

Here is one car concerning which most motorists have a meeting of minds. And never before has Cadillac left so little room for argument as in 1956!

Certainly no one could behold the new Cadillac without recognizing it as the "car of cars." Its beautiful, graceful, flowing lines . . . its regal bearing on the highway . . . and its long, low silhouette are simply too significant to misunderstand.

Surely no one could ride in a new Cadillac and not agree that it is the Standard of the World. Its new fabrics and leathers are rich and luxurious almost beyond belief . . . and its interior appointments have been crafted with a jeweler's skill.

And we doubt if anyone could drive a new Cadillac and not understand that it is the finest-performing motor car of all time. Its great new engine is a revelation in power and performance . . . and its new Hydra-Matic Drive is incredibly smooth and responsive.

Truly, the evidence on the side of Cadillac has never been more apparent than it is today.

Why not come in soon—and see for yourself?

We'll be delighted to introduce you to Cadillac's great new styling . . . and to arrange a demonstration at the wheel . . . and to acquaint you with the new Sedan de Ville and Eldorado Seville.

You'll agree, we're certain, that Cadillac for 1956 is beyond the realm of argument!

RUSSIANS HAVE RESUMED TOUGH POLICY STAND

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—There was a rough awakening this week for those who thought Russia's milder manner in 1955 was due to weakness or that the "Spirit of Geneva" was anything more than nice talk. When the Russians earlier this year shifted from the longstanding verbal brutalities of Stalin to a friendlier tone, there were some in this country who interpreted this as a sign Moscow needed to relax tensions. They thought internal problems were forcing the Russians to cut down on the arms race. It would have been more realistic to look upon the change in the Russian manner as simply a shift in tactics—as many did. The best friend the West has in West Germany is Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. He's old and sick and may die or have to leave office soon. Not even all of Adenauer's West Germans want military alliance with the West. Reds Bide Time
The Russians can afford to stand stiff, yielding nothing on Germany, until Adenauer leaves the scene and his successors take over. In their desire for German unity, they may be willing to sever their Western ties and deal directly with Moscow. The Russians paved the way for their doing just that when they recently established diplomatic relations with the West German government for the first time since the war. The failure of the Geneva conference to get agreement between the West and Russia on anything of importance will be described as the end of the "Geneva spirit." The correct question at this point is: What Geneva spirit? At Geneva last summer President Eisenhower and Russian Premier Bulganin got along pleasantly. They parted pleasantly. But they accomplished nothing definite. Positions Far Apart

They were supposed—or so a lot of people seemed to think—to have paved the way for agreements. But the Western and Russian positions had been so far apart for so long there could be no agreement unless one side or the other made major concessions. Neither side—except for Eisenhower's proposal on aerial inspection—has offered anything that could be considered on a concession since then. And the Russians say now they don't look on Eisenhower's idea as a concession. What's ahead? Perhaps the best of the two sides will be able to do,

Orrtanna

ORRTANNA — During the worship service at the local Methodist Church Sunday the following were received into membership by the pastor, Rev. Eugene Steiner: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Deardorff, of Orrtanna. Mrs. Golda Small, Baltimore, a daughter of the Richardsons, received baptismal rites. Mrs. Small spent the weekend with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weaver, Hagerstown, visited Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pepple. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nary and son, Tommy, returned to their home at Cranford, N. J., after spending a week with Mr. Nary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nary. The Narys also visited Mr. Nary's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bream, McKnightstown. Miss Marie Wetzel returned to Millersville State Teachers College after a stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wetzel. Mr. and Mrs. Brady Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Salmon, all of Chambersburg, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pepple and son, Lowell. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deardorff and daughter have begun house-keeping in the Frank Donaldson property, the former Margaret Donaldson property. Mr. and Mrs. George Ketterman have moved from Iron Springs to the property of Mrs. Margaret Deardorff, near Orrtanna, vacated some time ago by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sharrah and family. Ray Trembow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Appolon Trembow, has enrolled as a student at the Naval Academy at Port Union, Va. Mrs. Trembow and daughter, Tynia, joined him at Port Union on Sunday while Mr. Trembow spent the day in New York City. Miss Helen Mellor returned to her home in West Chester after a week's visit with her aunt, Mrs. H. T. Vance. Mrs. Vance accompanied her niece to West Chester, returning home on Sunday. During Miss Mellor's stay, she and Mrs. Vance visited relatives in Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Wetzel, Solley, Md., spent a couple days with Mr. Wetzel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wetzel, while hunting in the South Mountains. A two-pound boneless smoked pork shoulder butt is a good choice for a small family. Cover the butt with water and simmer a couple of hours. Drain and stick with whole cloves; pat brown sugar over the top and sides. Place in a hot oven to glaze.

This Insurance Policy Won't Pay

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Taking a pair of shoes to a repair shop cost jewelry salesman William H. Henderson between $50,000 and $60,000, he told police. Henderson, of Larkspur, Calif., said he left his car for less than 10 minutes yesterday to take the shoes to the shop. He returned to find the trunk lock punched and his sample bag of watches, diamond rings and pins stolen. Det. Sgt. Arthur O. Boyd quoted Henderson: "In this business, you make one mistake and you're through." The valuables were insured against theft with one exception: when a salesman leaves his car unattended. About 54,000 white babies are born out of wedlock each year in the United States.

Hanover Shoe Executive Dies

HANOVER, Pa. (AP)—Allen W. Cadwell, 55, vice president and general manager of Hanover Shoe, Inc., died Thursday. Cadwell, a native of Stillwell, Minn., was admitted to the Hanover General Hospital 10 days ago. He resided at Hanover R. 2, since coming here to join the shoe manufacturing firm last year. Prior to joining the Hanover firm he was executive vice president of the Freeman Shoe Corp., Beloit, Wis., for many years. A graduate of the University of Virginia, Cadwell is survived by his widow and two daughters. Funeral arrangements are incomplete. The panda has a body like that of a bear, feet like those of a cat and a face like a raccoon.

Stevenson Expected To Rap Republican Foreign Policy

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Associates said today Adlai E. Stevenson plans to accuse Republicans of befuddling foreign policy and giving big government too much voice in government.

Stevenson is expected to announce next Tuesday in Chicago he is available again for the Democratic presidential nomination he won in 1952. He will air some of his foreign policy views in a speech tonight at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville. The speech will be carried by the ABC radio network.

The 1952 nominee conferred with former Secretary of State Dean Acheson, former Secretary of Interior Oscar Chapman and Democratic national committee officials in an overnight stopover here.

"Determined Candidate"
From these and other conferences came word that Stevenson, who was reluctant to take the nomination in 1952, now is a determined candidate ready for a battle.

Friends said he plans to call on the "old pros" of politics to run his campaign while volunteers are organized for him on a national basis.

START HEART ATTACK SURVEY

CHICAGO (AP)—Dr. Paul Dudley White, Boston heart specialist directing President Eisenhower's treatment, began a nationwide survey among doctors today to learn how common such heart disease is in America and what has happened to the victims.

The survey will determine how many have had acute coronary thrombosis attacks like that of the President, what percentage are still alive and what proportion have been able to return to work.

In a letter published in the current issue of the Journal of the American Medical Assn., he asked "all physicians in this country" to supply him by letter with information on their heart patients.

Dial 1450 For W-G-E-T Programs

He said he is seeking the data "since the current illness of President Eisenhower has brought acute coronary thrombosis still more into the limelight than it has ever been before and since it is important to have more information on the prevalence of this disease in the United States today."

A spokesman for the AMA Journal said Dr. White did not say what he intended to do with the information.

TOY MACHINE
LOS ANGELES (AP)—A package gave out a whirling sound as it slid down the chute at the post office last night. "I think we've got a bomb here," Supt. Sam Weingarten telephoned police. Sgt. Erwin Hyde, demolition expert, arrived with two other officers, carried the package to the parking lot and slit it open. Inside, whirling away merrily under battery power, was a child's toy washing machine.
